

Satellite radio should be allowed to broadcast local information in a manner that is unique to all other broadcast media. Currently, consumers can and should have a choice as to the medium they prefer. There is no conflict as far as I can tell between what local broadcasters offer and the current offering of satellite radio. Please allow the continued freedom of choice.